"But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners Christ died for us."

Romans 5:8

Monday, August 31st was the kick off to our third year of school at TCA! We marked the occasion with our first Opening Ceremony as a school. Our morning began with all our students, staff, families, and friends meeting on the front lawn. From there, our first year TCA students recieved their white bouquets to carry into the school. We were thrilled to be joined by Mr. Pat Duffy who played the bagpipes to lead our processional into the chapel. Our program began with a hymn of praise followed by prayer and a welcome from our Administrator, Mrs. Laura Zeigle. We were then encouraged and inspired by an exhortation by Board Member, Mr. Brian Ahlgren. The passing of the bouquets was another highlight as our young, new students passed off their bouquets to their parents, symbolizing the beginning of the educational and spiritual partnership between the new families and TCA. We then closed our ceremony in prayer over all of the parents, students, and staff by Board Member, Mr. JT Smith. It was a beautifully meaningful morning to get our school year started!

Our 4K students have enjoyed diving into school for the first time these past couple of weeks! Their days are filled with learning their numbers and letters, Bible stories, songs, rhymes and poems, along with rest and play time. It is a joy to see this group of students discovering, learning, and growing!

"Next to the Bible, Greek Myths are the most important set of stories in our history. Greek myths are universal stories that describe human character types and the human situation in a wonderfully imaginative and entertaining way... Greek Myths and other ancient myths and legends often have similarities to Bible stories.. For instance, the human race seems to have a collective memory of a universal flood and a "Garden of Eden" since almost all ancient mythologies have these two stories... A mythology is a culture's attempt to supply answers to the mysteries of human life... The Greeks who created gods in the image of man, prepared the way for the God who created man in His own image."
