MATCH CHALLENGE!

Do you share our Vision?

To train up leaders who impact the culture for Christ!

You can help us meet our Match Goal! Please consider making a gift to support classical Christian education in Hayward at:

TCAHAYWARD.COM/DONATE

TCA is a non-profit organization which operates completely independent of government funding. Since our first school year in 2024, we have been blessed to receive a couple private grants—with absolutely no strings attached—that have helped support our early growth. We are especially grateful for our ongoing relationship with the William S. Knight Foundation, whose generosity has previously supported our academy and who is now inspiring our community through a new Match Challenge, encouraging others to join in strengthening the future of Trinitas! If our school community can raise $50,000, the William S. Knight Foundation will MATCH it by awarding us a $50,000 grant!

Fellowship of WI Classical Christian Schools

WI schools in attendance:

- Baldwin Christian School
- Falls Baptist Academy
- Maranatha Academy
- Trinitas Classical Academy

On Friday, November 14, Mrs. Zeigle and Mrs. Niebuhr attended the second annual "Koinonia" of WI Classical Christian Schools at Maranatha Academy in Superior, WI. This gathering is an all-day fellowship and workshop for teachers and administrators of WI classical Christian schools. Our day consisted of lectures, small group workshops, networking, and singing praise songs. The classical Christian school movement is young, with the first modern classical Christian schools in the United States opening in the early 1980s. In the past decade, hundreds of classical Christian schools have been starting up across the country, all lead by the same fervor to resurrect what education used to be: a formational pursuit of the True, Good, and Beautiful. This gathering at Maranatha Academy was filled with enthusiasm, encouragement, and deep passion for our schools' shared mission: to train up wise and virtuous thinkers for Christ.
